Xanadu Wines - Gold Plate Award Winners – Again!!!

at the Western Australia's Gold Plate Awards, Xanadu Estate in Margaret River was named winner of the Best Restaurant within a Winery Country category, making it Xanadu's seventh consecutive year of Gold Plate awards.

"The wine and food experience at Xanadu has long been renowned as one of the region's finest. To again achieve these awards is testament to the great talents and dedication of the Xanadu Team" said director Darren Rathbone.

The Catering Institute this year celebrated 42 years of Gold Plate Awards, Australia's longest independent awards, acknowledging the epitome of culinary talent and service within Western Australia.

This is the seventh consecutive year Xanadu has been presented with a gold plate, winning awards in 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008 and now 2009.

'It's been a fantastic year at Xanadu, receiving both food and wine awards from all over - we're putting a great amount of creativity and feeling into our food, working with fresh local and seasonal produce,' Head Chef Iain Robertson said.

The awards solidify an exciting year for Xanadu which recently received a star rating in the 2010 Gourmet Traveller Restaurant Guide.

Cellar door opens daily 10am – 5pm.
