MARGARET RIVER

in recent times, the rathbone wine group has emerged as one of the most exciting family-owned operations in the wine industry. dedicated to producing wines of great regional character and varietal distinction, the family now owns four super-premium wineries from four distinguished regions throughout australia; xanadu wines in margaret river, western australia, victorian wineries yering station in the yarra valley and mount langhi in the grampians, parker coonawarra estate in south australia.

xanadu wines

established by dr john lagan in 1977, making xanadu one of the earlier vineyards in the district. it is the latest addition to the family's wine portfolio. having long admired the margaret river region and its particular success with cabernet, chardonnay, sauvignon blanc and semillon, the RWG group purchased xanadu in august 2005, enhancing xanadu's reputation for wine and wine tourism.

yering station

victoria's first vineyard was originally planted in 1838. its acquisition in 1996 marked the beginning of a new era with the construction of a state-of-the-art winery and award winning tourism complex. through consistently producing wines of elegance, balance, quality and structure, yering station has built a reputation as one of the finest producers in the yarra valley and australia. in 2004, yering station was awarded the highly coveted 'international winemaker of the year' award at the international wine and spirit competition in london.

mount langhi ghiran

located in the grampians, western victoria, mount langhi is one of australia's most iconic shiraz producers. renowned for elegant and intensely flavoured cool-climate wines, the benchmark 'langhi shiraz' has achieved a cult-status both domestically and abroad.

parker coonawarra estate

parker's produces some of australia's most exceptional cabernet sauvignon and merlot from the rich terra rossa soils of coonawarra the highly-sought-after flagship wine, 'first growth' has achieved highest acclaim across the globe.
