It's stonkingly good. From the dark purple hue, the excellent fruit – an array of plum flavours, perfectly seasoned with pepper, cinnamon and oak spice – to the killer tannins encompassing restrained power. Seriously good wine.

The viognier is discreet in this beautiful, elegant red. The bouquet recalls spices and roasting meats with toasty smoky oak embellishment and slinky texture. It's outstanding and loaded with charm. Yering continues to finesse this wine, arguably their best to date.

Another outstanding release of this benchmark Yarra Valley shiraz, with 2015 offering high perfume, velvety texture, good inward concentration and a swathe of fine-feeling tannins. Length is to infinity and structure is impressive. Superb stuff.

Youthful purple. Powerful black and blue fruit, incense, Indian spice and vanilla aromas on the expressive nose; a smoky mineral quality adds urgency. Sweet, densely packed boysenberry, cherry cola and spicecake flavours spread out steadily on the palate, picking up a hint of mocha and a touch of licorice on the back half. Lush, broad and seamless in style, finishing with superb energy and smooth tannins that add structure and subtle grip.
