The Real Review, October 2018

Light yellow colour with a crisp snow pea, straw and nettle aroma, intense and pungent, the palate likewise intense and straw and lemon flavoured, taut and savoury, dry and cleansing at the finish. The wine is a bit plain, but has no faults, and has better intensity than most.

The Real Review, August 2018

Intense lemon and lime flavours within a zippy, light-bodied palate. Snappy, crunchy acidity. Great flavour and length.
